Re: December AND Monthly Report

Dear Members:

Cowboy Logic: "If at first you DO succeed, don't look too surprised." What Has AMFA Done for You?

There are so many things that AMFA has done for you. Here are just a few;

- 1) Professional Negotiators, Lawyers, Financial Analysts, and whatever resources necessary to assure a quality work environment.
 - a) AMFA has negotiated the #1 (Southwest) and #2 (Alaska) passenger airline contracts in the industry to include wages and work rules
 - b) Open Negotiations
 - c) Negotiation updates
- 2) AMFA's Legislative firm is continually on The Hill in Washington D.C. to promote our members views in the industry
 - a) FAA Reauthorization
 - b) Frequent Traveler Status
- 3) AMFA National/AMT Society Maintenance Skills Competition Sponsorships
 - a) AMFA Maintenance Skills Competition Scholarship
- 4) AMFA Negotiated Maintenance Outsource Liaison at Southwest
- 5) Our Locals create and participate in numerous community enrichment events,
 - a) Local 11 builds a playhouse for the Dallas CASA Shelter auction;

- b) Ronald McDonald House meal service
- c) Local 14 Poker Run Motorcycle Rally
- d) Holiday Toy Drives
- e) Local Scholarships
- f) Hardship Donations to its members
- g) Habitat For Humanity

These are only a few of the many things that AMFA is continually striving to do for its members and for aviation as a whole. Without you, The Members, AMFA would be nothing.

Thanks for all you do,

Floyd Looney,

AMFA Assistant National Director
